Representative Expert Engagements

- Analysis of medical causation and potential contributing factors in a fatal negligent caregiver motor vehicle collision, including evaluation of pain and suffering and consideration of alternative causes of death
- Medical malpractice review involving assessment of ECG interpretation, standard of care, and factors contributing to delayed diagnosis of myocardial infarction and subsequent long-term cardiac disability
- Evaluation of heat-related illness in a residential setting involving delayed air conditioning repair, including analysis of differential diagnoses such as sepsis and stroke during hospitalization
- Analysis of submersion timelines, injury patterns, and medical plausibility in an alleged drowning matter
- Review of EMS provider conduct and applicable standards of care in a criminal matter involving allegations of sexual assault by a paramedic
- Environmental exposure and survival physiology analysis in a Florida Keys vessel capsize matter involving alleged dealership negligence, including assessment of dehydration, starvation, exhaustion, and reported pain and suffering
- Medical malpractice review involving evaluation of potential ideologies of cardiac arrest, following cephalosporin administration, including consideration of anaphylaxis, sepsis, and other alternative causes

Additional representative matters available upon request.

Contact Info:

Terrell J. Swanson, MD, FAWM
904.219.7375
Terrell@TerrellSwansonMD.com
https://TerrellSwansonMD.com/